

Dear All,

On 20-21 November 2014 the 6th Business Security Conference in Warsaw will take place and we invite you for this extraordinary event. The event will be held at the Lord Hotel 4* and will provide high-quality educational sessions, networking opportunities, and valuable sector updates for many Central and Eastern European security professionals.

This year's conference "Change Your Business Perspectives" we would like to draw your attention to the new perspectives for business security ideas and solutions. There will be also fantastic opportunity for the conference participants to take part in The Fraud Detective course – special hands on session for SASMA by Nigel Iyer.

Among the confirmed speakers are:

- Don Randall – CISO, Bank of England,
- Audrius Šapola – Regional Head of Security Department, SEB Bank,
- Bartosz Matysiak – Deputy Director for the Department of Security, Narodowy Bank Polski (National Bank of Poland),
- Peter Davies - Chief Executive Officer of CEOP,
- Marc Thienpont – Managing Director & Partner, Robrechts & Thienpont,
- Bernard Galea – CSO, FM Logistic,
- Werner Cooreman – Head of Security for DHL Express in Europe,
- Sebastian Michalkiewicz – Warsaw Polish Airports Security Director,
- Marian Ślimak – Director of the Security and Defence Department, PKP S.A. (Polish State Railways),
- Bill Butler – Chief Executive of the Security Industry Authority (SIA),
- Michail Russo – Security Expert, Former Captain in the Ukrainian Army and others excellent security professionals.

Linked by a common intention to build a network of professional contacts from around the world and sharing best practices 6th Business Security Conference is the growing event in the security calendar in Central and Eastern Europe.

Conference Dinner on Thursday, 20 Nov.

On the first evening of the conference, we like to invite the conference participants to a very special and unique conference dinner to relax in a hospitable restaurant Kamanda Lwowska, which is located in the old building at 10th Street Foksal in Warsaw old town. Participation included in the ticket price!

The 6th Business Security Conference has so much to offer — what are you waiting for?
